The name of the Company is SimCorp A/S.

The Company is also trading as: SimCorp, Simulation Planning Corporation A/S, SimPlan A/S, SimCorp Nordic A/S and SimCorp Financial Training A/S.

Article 2

The objects for which the Company is established are to develop, market, sell, implement and deploy software and related services to companies, institutions and administrative bodies whose activities are within or related to the management of securities and/or other assets. The Company's objects may be carried out directly or through shareholdings in other companies.

THE COMPANY'S SHARE CAPITAL

Article 3

The share capital of the Company is DKK 40,500,000, say forty million five hundred thousand 00/100, divided into shares of DKK 1 each or any multiples thereof. The share capital has been fully paid up.

AUTHORITY TO INCREASE THE SHARE CAPITAL

Article 4

The share capital may be increased in one or more issues of new shares by a total nominal amount of up to DKK 3,809,233 (3,809,233 shares of DKK 1) without pre-emption rights for the Company's existing shareholders and as directed by the Board of Directors with respect to time and terms. The capital increase may be effected in cash or by contribution of an existing business or specific assets, in all cases at market price. This authority shall be valid for a period of five years, expiring on 1 March 2022, and may be extended by the general meeting for one or more periods of up to five years at a time.

The new shares shall be registered in the name of the holder in the Company's register of shareholders.

The new shares shall be negotiable instruments, and no restrictions shall apply to the transferability of the shares. No shares confer any special rights upon their holder and no shareholder shall be under an obligation to have his shares redeemed in full or in part by the Company or any other party.

Article 5

All shares shall be issued to bearer, but may be registered in the name of the holder in the Company's register of shareholders. The shares are negotiable instruments, and no restrictions apply to their transferability.

Article 6

No shares shall confer any special rights upon their holder, and no shareholder shall be under an obligation to have his shares redeemed in full or in part by the Company or any other party.

Article 7

The Board of Directors may resolve that the Company's register of shareholders be kept by the Company or by a third-party registrar designated by the Board of Directors. The Company's registrar is VP Investor Services A/S (CVR no. 30201183), Weidekampsgade 14, P.O. Box 4040, 2300 Copenhagen S.

GENERAL MEETINGS AND VOTING RIGHTS

Article 8

The general meeting of shareholders has the supreme authority in all matters and things pertaining to the Company subject to the limits set by statute and by these Articles.

General meetings shall be held at the registered office of the Company or in Greater Copenhagen.

General meetings may be held in English. Documents prepared for the General Meeting, including the notice of the meeting and the agenda with the full text of all proposals and other material for the purpose of General Meeting, may be drafted in English.

General Meetings shall be convened by the Board of Directors, giving no less than three weeks' and no more than five weeks' notice at the Company's website and by written notice to all shareholders registered in the register of shareholders upon request.

The notice of the general meeting shall include the agenda of the meeting. Any proposed resolution requiring a special majority of votes to be adopted shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, which shall include the full wording thereof.

Article 9

All shareholders shall be entitled to attend and to vote at the General Meeting provided that they have requested an admission card at the Company's website or from the Company's office not later than three days before the date of the General Meeting. Shareholders must prove their title to the shares by registration in the register of shareholders or by notification to the Company's registrar no later than 1 week before the General Meeting with a view to registration of any shares not yet registered. Shareholders may attend in person or by proxy and may be accompanied by an advisor.

Article 10

Each share of DKK 1 shall carry one vote at general meetings. Shareholders who have acquired shares by transfer can only vote such shares if the shares have been registered in the register of shareholders no later than 1 week prior to the General Meeting or if the shareholders have notified the Company of and documented their acquisition no later than 1 week prior to the General Meeting.

Voting rights may be exercised under an instrument of proxy issued to a person who need not be a shareholder of the Company. Instruments of proxy shall be deemed to be valid until revoked by written notice to the Company, unless such instruments contain provisions to the contrary. Instruments of proxy issued to the Board of Directors will, however, be valid for a maximum of one year and must be issued for a specific general meeting with an agenda known in advance.

Article 11

The Annual General Meeting shall be held not later than four months after the end of the financial year.

The agenda of the Annual General Meeting shall include the following business:

1. Report of the Board of Directors on the Company's activities during the past year.
2. Presentation and adoption of the annual report.
3. The Board of Directors' proposal for the appropriation of profit or loss as recorded in the adopted annual report.
4. Election of members to the Board of Directors, including Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the Board of Directors.
5. Election of auditors.
6. Any proposals by the Board of Directors or shareholders, including any proposal to authorize the Company to acquire own shares.

To be considered at the Annual General Meeting, proposals by shareholders must be submitted to the Company no later than six weeks before the date of the meeting.

Article 12

Extraordinary General Meetings shall be held when resolved by the shareholders, the Board of Directors or the auditors or when requested in writing to the Board of Directors by shareholders holding not less than one twentieth (1/20) of the share capital. The shareholders' request shall specify the business to be transacted at the General Meeting. The General Meeting shall then be convened within 14 days of the request.

Article 13

General Meetings shall be presided over by a chairman who is elected by the Board of Directors. The chairman shall preside over the General Meeting and decide all matters concerning the transaction of business.

Minutes must be kept of the proceedings at General Meetings, which must be entered in a minute book to be signed by the chairman of the General Meeting and attending members of the Board of Directors.

Not later than 14 days after the General Meeting, the minute book or a certified copy thereof shall be made available to the shareholders at the Company's website and shall be sent to all shareholders who have so requested in writing.

Article 14

All resolutions at General Meetings shall be passed by a simple majority of votes, unless the Danish Companies Act or these Articles of Association prescribe special rules with regard to representation and majority.

Any proposed resolution to amend these Articles of Association, to dissolve the Company or to merge it with another company or firm must be passed by at least two-thirds of the votes cast and of the share capital represented at the General Meeting, unless a greater majority or unanimity is required by statute. Furthermore, at least 50% of the share capital shall be represented at the General Meeting. In case less than 50% of the share capital is represented at the General Meeting and the resolution is adopted by not less than two-thirds of the votes cast and of the share capital represented at the meeting, a new General Meeting may be convened within 14 days for the adoption of the resolution by not less than two-thirds of the votes cast and of the share capital represented at the General Meeting.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND MANAGEMENT BOARDArticle 15

The Company shall be managed by a Board of Directors consisting of from four to eight members including a chairman and a Vice-chairman who are elected by the General Meeting for terms of one year and who are eligible for reelection. The General Meeting elects the Chairman and the Vice-chairman of the Board of Directors directly. In the event that the Chairman of the Board of Directors resigns during the election period, the Vice-chairman shall assume the position of Chairman of the Board of Directors. In the event that the Vice-chairman resigns or assumes the position of the Chairman during an election period, the Board of Directors shall elect a new Vice-chairman from among its members to hold office until the next Annual General Meeting.

In addition, the Board shall include such members as are elected pursuant to the statutory rules on employee representation on boards of directors.

The Company has adopted a voluntary scheme for the election of employees to the Board of Directors pursuant to the rules on group representation. All employees in the SimCorp group of companies may vote at elections and are eligible for the Board of Directors. The voluntary scheme is described in more detail in election regulations as approved by the Board of Directors. The number of Board members elected by the employees will correspond to the number required under the Danish rules on employee representation.

The directors' remuneration shall be determined by the General Meeting.

Article 16

1. Board resolutions shall be passed by a simple majority of votes. In case of an equality of votes, the chairman has the casting vote.
2. The Board of Directors may grant individual or joint powers of procuration.

The Board of Directors shall appoint the Company's management board consisting of 1 to 5 members of whom one shall be appointed as Chief Executive Officer.

The Board of Directors shall lay down general guidelines for management of the Company, including rules of procedure for the Board of Directors.

Article 17

General guidelines have been prepared governing the Company's incentive remuneration of members of the Board of Directors and the Management Board. These guidelines have been adopted at the Company's general meeting and made available to the public at the Company's website.

POWER TO BIND THE COMPANYArticle 18

The Company shall legally be bound by the joint signatures of a member of the Board of Directors and a member of the Management Board, by the joint signatures of two members of the Management Board, and by the joint signatures of the chairman of the Board of Directors and a member of the Board of Directors.

AUDITORSArticle 19

The Company's annual report shall be audited by one or two state-authorized public accountants elected by the General Meeting.

The auditors are elected for terms of one year and are eligible for reelection.
